I HATE HAMLET

by Paul Rudnick

January 13 to February 3, 2018

A successful television actor relocates to New York, where he rents a marvelous gothic apartment. With his television career in limbo, the actor is offered the opportunity to play Hamlet onstage, but there's one problem: He hates Hamlet. His quandary deepens with the entrance of John Barrymore's ghost, who arrives intoxicated and in full costume, to the apartment that once was his. The contrast between the two actors, the towering, dissipated Barrymore whose Hamlet was the greatest of his time, and Andrew Rally, hot young television star, leads to a wildly funny duel over women, art, success, duty, television, and yes, the apartment! The Musical Comedy Whodunit!

Book by Rupert Holmes; Music by John Kander

Lyrics by Fred Ebb; Original Book and Concept by Peter Stone
Additional Lyrics by John Kander & Rupert Holmes

May 19 to June 23, 2018

From the creators of Cabaret and Chicago comes the musical whodunit Curtains! It's Boston 1959 and chief sleuth Lieutenant Frank Cioffi investigates the murder of a Broadway-bound theater company's tremendously untalented star on opening night. Could the culprit be the hard-edged lady producer? One of the recently divorced song-writing team? The egomaniacal British director? The seemingly sweet ingénue? Played against the fictional cowboy musical Robbin' Hood!, Curtains will have you on the edge of your seat ... laughing!
